

St Paul's Youth

Last Updated Saturday, 06 June 2009

Here are all those short little reports from the youth activities, and we've included the calendar for June here as well.

Waddy CRAVE? Underground cafe gets new life

Making a comeback to the Under-ground this past May was CRAVE. The band, Intermission, made up of St Paul's Luca Stamatescu and friends from Luther (including the grand-daughter of Kevin Schilling) set the tone early as they provided engaging, meaning-ful and fun music. Amidst great food (thanks Dania and Thea), a variety of games, and comfortable places to just chill out, CRAVE was a place to relax and enjoy each other's company.

This month's Insurgency Celebration is at a local ten pin bowling alley. See all the latest details on the opposite page.

ART comp

The Box Hill Community Arts Centre is calling for entries in its 2009 Biennial Art Competition. Though the deadline is short (5pm, Friday June 26), we know that St Paul's is blessed with many artists who wouldn't let that scare them. You may already have a piece (made since January 1, 2009) that encom-passes the competition's theme: "Â...homeÂ..." Isn't that beautiful? There sure are a lot of Christian — and Child, Youth and Family Ministry — connections that can be made with this theme. Thus, all who enter (whether you make it to the actual display round or not), let's consider having a St Paul's art display on such a theme! So get busy artists and artists-to-be! Let Keren or Matt know when you have something ready for display. Competition details at www.bhcac.com.auMovie hit

Last month's experiment of Dinner and a Movie in the Underground was a very enjoyable time for a num-ber of St Paul's young adults. The great food prepared by Geoff and Robyn Miller (and Sam H. who did some serious cooking) set the mood for watching a great film, Life is Beautiful. Who would have thought that with seven films on hand to choose from, this Academy Award-winning foreign film would get the nod? The bar has been set high at this premiere event! (Note that this month, Dinner and a Movie will be at the usual time, even though that's the Queen's Birthday week-end. She probably likes movies, too.)PARENTS

Please plan to be a part of the Parent Summit, on June 12, 7:30pm in the Underground. Wine, cheese, coffee, and desserts will be served. More details at left.sum-mit (noun)

- The highest point or part; top; apex.

- The highest level meeting of diplomatic or other govern-mental officials; a meeting at the summit. OPERATIONS

5 Safe House Rendezvous #5 7:30 Rendezvous point to be announced. It's the time to "hang-out" with friends, enjoy nibbles and grow deep in the Word of God. As usual, caring parents' host, a couple of St Paul young adults help lead the study, and together we will realize how the Spirit, through the Bible and Christian fellowship, empowers our lives. Bring your Bible, your brain, and your heart to your targeted meeting point. If there are any questions, contact Matt or Cathy. 7:30pm 12 Just Adults: PARENT SUMMIT 7:30 Talk, wine & cheese, coffee & desserts Eighteen months since Matt became Pastoral Assistant of Youth & Family Ministry, it's time for a "big picture" look at where we have been and where we might be going. He needs and wants your listening ears, observations, and feedback. Let's do this over wine and cheese, coffee and desserts, 7:30-9:30pm in HQ. Mainly for parents of Yrs 5-12 students, but all interested and concerned adults are welcome!

19 Insurgency Celebration 7:00 Bowling alley breakout This "insurgency celebration" is all about invading a local bowling alley for an evening of fun and fellowship. Maybe a couple of silly prizes will be handed out, but the goal is just a good time with friends and a time to make new ones. We're at Box Hill Tenpin in Healthways Recreation Centre, 3-11 Arcade Road Mall, Mont Albert North (Melways 46 K7, <http://www.healthways.com.au/>). Cost $15 from 7:00-10:00pm. Bring a treat to share as well. Thanks! Christian Life Week
