

Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.”

Isaiah 52:7, “How lovely on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who announces peace...”

Luke 2:14, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favour rests.”

III. THAT JESUS CHRIST IS JOY.

Luke 2:10, 20, “But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people... The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.”

John 15:11, “I have told you these things so that My joy and delight may be in you, and that your joy may be made full and complete and overflowing.” (AMP).

CONCLUSION: Hebrews 12:18-24, “Unlike your ancestors, you didn’t come to Mount Sinai—all that volcanic blaze and earthshaking rumble—to hear God speak. The ear splitting words and soul-shaking message terrified them and they begged him to stop. When they heard the words—‘If an animal touches the Mountain, it’s as good as dead’—they were afraid to move. Even Moses was terrified. No, that’s not your experience at all. You’ve come to Mount Zion, the city where the living God resides. The invisible Jerusalem is populated by throngs of festive angels and Christian citizens. It is the city where God is Judge, with judgments that make us just. You’ve come to Jesus, who presents us with a new covenant, a fresh charter from God. He is the Mediator of this covenant. The murder of Jesus, unlike Abel’s—a homicide that cried out for vengeance—became a proclamation of grace. So don’t turn a deaf ear to these gracious words. If those who ignored earthly warnings didn’t get away with it, what will happen to us if we turn our backs on heavenly warnings? His voice that time shook the earth to its foundations; this time—he’s told us this quite plainly—he’ll also rock the heavens: ‘One last shaking, from top to bottom, stem to stern.’ The phrase ‘one last shaking’ means a thorough housecleaning, getting rid of all the historical and religious junk so that the unshakable essentials stand clear and uncluttered. Do you see what we’ve got? An unshakable kingdom! And do you see how thankful we must be? Not only thankful, but brimming with worship, deeply reverent before God. For God is not an indifferent bystander. He’s actively cleaning house, torching all that needs to burn, and he won’t quit until it’s all cleansed. God himself is Fire!”
